

Teaching and Learning Managing and orchestrating the use of digital technologies in teaching and learning

Workshop 4. Activity 4.2

Co-funded by the European Union

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them. Project Number 101132853

Importance of media literacy

Critical Thinking

Responsible Consumption

Commercial Awareness

Empowerment

Digital Citizenship

Psychological Well-being

Civic Engagement

Cultural Understanding

How to create innovative projects using digital technologies in teaching and learning

- 1. Choose Appropriate Digital Tools
- 2. Design Engaging Activities
- 3. Integrate Multimodal Content
- 4. Encourage Collaboration and Interaction
- 5. Personalise Learning Experiences
- 6. Embrace Emerging Technologies
- 7. Provide Ongoing Support and Feedback
- 8. Evaluate and Iterate

By following these steps and staying abreast of new developments in educational technology, you can create innovative projects that harness the power of digital technologies to enhance teaching and learning experiences

Why the use of digital technologies in teaching and learning is important

- 1. Enhanced Engagement
- 2. Accessibility and Inclusivity
- 3. Personalised Learning
- 4. Expanded Learning Opportunities
- 5. Collaboration and Communication
- 6. Efficiency and Productivity
- 7. Preparation for the Digital Age
- 8. Innovation and Creativity

Using digital technologies in teaching and learning is important for creating engaging, inclusive, personalised, and future-ready educational experiences that empower learners to succeed in a rapidly evolving digital world

Any Questions?

PARTNERS

THANK YOU!